Any player who participated in the Senior competition in their last match played will be ineligible to play in the Reserve competition match against a Club with only one side entered.

Penalty: Clubs found in breach of this bylaw will incur a $250 fine and will forfeit premiership points if they won the match.

44.1. Seniors Finals Eligibility

44.1.1 A player must play at least three (3) Home and Away matches in a competition to be eligible for finals, except in the following cases:

This must not be at the expense of a registered and available player. In this case, the Club must notify the opposition and the League.

44.1.8 Finals eligibility is calculated at the conclusion of the Ballarat FNL Home and Away matches. Finals matches played are not included when determining finals eligibility.

44.1.9 VFL games are not counted as Senior competition matches played. Players may only play with their nominated home Club after being released by their VFL club on an Interchange Agreement.

Clubs found playing players who have not been released by their VFL club will incur a loss of four (4) points and percentage, in which the ineligible player participated, at the discretion of the Board.

44.2.7 If a player participates in more than one (1) match on the same day during a Home and Away round, only one (1) match will be recognised for eligibility and match count purposes.

Where a player participates in multiple matches across different age groups or competitions on the same day, the match counted will be the Senior competition match within the player's registered age group.

- If a Reserves player participates in two (2) matches on the same day (i.e. Under 12 Reserves and Under 12 Seniors), the Senior match in the player's age group will be recognised as the match played.

This must not be at the expense of a registered and available player. In this case, the Club must notify the opposition and the League.

44.2.9 If a player has played more than eight (8) Home and Away games in a higher competition age group and is on the team that wins the 2nd Semi Final, skipping the Preliminary Final to go straight to the Grand Final, they cannot play in the lower competition age group during the Preliminary Final, even if both age groups are still in the competition.

44.2.11 Permit games played outside of Ballarat FNL competitions do not count towards a player's finals eligibility.
